From the Office of the Superintendent of Colchester Public Schools
February 2022

Press Release
For Immediate Release

Colchester Public Schools - WJJMS Innovation's Class Project Selected as a Winner in Gingerboard House Competition

William J. Johnston Middle School: Mrs. Ngai's 8th grade Innovation's class project was recently selected as one of the winners in the Community Partners category of the Hartford Courant/CT Science Center's annual Upcycled Gingerboard House Competition. Contest entries featured "gingerboard" houses made from cardboard, upcycled, and recycled materials.

Pictured (from left to right)
Back Row: Brynn Herboldt, Caelyn McLear, Emma Corn, Ava Golubeff, Liam Sweeney, Aivree Durnik
Front Row: Natalie Uhrig, Kristina Ngai, Ben Buyniski, Cameron Taskey